IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.11985 of 2008
AMOD KUMAR
Versus
STATE OF BIHAR
---

2. 06.05.2008 The impugned order of rejection is hardly of any help to this Court in considering the matter. Even though the case diary has been referred to, no material from the case diary has been considered.

This Court, therefore, finds it difficult to adjudicate the matter.

The matter is remanded back to the Court of Sessions Judge to rehear the matter afresh and pass fresh order in accordance with the materials that may be available in the case diary after referring to the same.

Let the petitioner file an application before the court below within four weeks for rehearing of his application for anticipatory bail, which shall then be considered and heard afresh on the basis of the materials available in the case diary without being prejudiced by the present order.

If the petitioner does not file appropriate application before the court below within four weeks, the present application shall be deemed to be rejected.

The application is, accordingly, disposed.

Let the order be communicated by fax at the cost of the petitioner.

WEB COPY
NOT OFFICIAL

AKS/ (Navin Sinha, J.)